unicri
advancing security, serving justice, building peace

Short Course on Hologrammatic Terrorism

Political violence in the society of communication

16 — 22 September 2010

Substantive Director: Mr. Alfredo D'Ascoli Graziano

SCIENTIFIC PARK
UNIVERSITY CAMPUS
"SELVA DEI PINI"
POMEZIA

CeAS

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA

CENTRO ALTI STUDI
PER LA LOTTA AL TERRORISMO
E ALLA VIOLENZA POLITICA

ictac
International Counter-Terrorism
Academic Community
"It takes a network to be a network"

Thursday September 16th

Welcome	09.30 - 09.45
Introduction to the Course Ms. Cristina Nardelli, UNICRI Focal Point, Pomezia Training Centre Mr. Alfredo D'Ascoli Graziano, Head of Terrorism and Security Unit, Ce.A.S. (Centre for Advanced Studies on Terrorism and Political Violence), Scientific Park - University Campus "Selva dei Pini", Pomezia, Italy	09.45 - 10.40
Coffee Break	10.40 - 11.00
Creation and evolution of a net-learning-organization of terror Mr. Alfredo D'Ascoli Graziano	11.00 - 13.00
Lunch	13.00 - 14.30
Roundtable discussion with lecturer, tutor and students to debate about the morning topics	14.30 - 17.00

Friday September 17th

Strategies and methods of action in the cyberspace Ms. Chiara Fonio Researcher at the University "Cattolica del Sacro Cuore", Milan, Italy	09.30 - 11.00
Coffee Break	11.00 - 11.30
Strategies and methods of action in the cyberspace (Continued)	11.30 – 13.00
Lunch	13.00 - 14.30
Roundtable discussion with lecturer, tutor and students to debate about the morning topics	14.30 - 17.00

Saturday September 18th

Internet surveillance and the challenges to the respect of civil rights and democracy Mr. Clive Walker Professor of Criminal Justice Studies, School of Law, University of Leeds, U.K.	09.30 - 11.00
Coffee Break	11.00 - 11.30
Internet surveillance and the challenges to the respect of civil rights and democracy (Continued)	11.30 – 13.00
Lunch	13.00 - 14.30
Roundtable discussion with lecturer, tutor and students to debate about the morning topics	14.30 - 17.00

Monday September 20th

How terrorist groups use and exploit ICT technologies: from communications to virtual attacks passing through fund-raising activities Ms. Yael Shahar Senior Researcher, Institute for Counter-Terrorism, IDC Herzliya, Israel	09.30 - 11.00
Coffee Break	11.00 - 11.30
How terrorist groups use and exploit ICT technologies: from communications to virtual attacks passing through fund-raising activities (Continued)	11.30 – 13.00
Lunch	13.00 - 14.30
Roundtable discussion with lecturer, tutor and students to debate about the morning topics	14.30 - 17.00

Tuesday September 21st

Understanding verbal and non-verbal messages of terrorist groups' web and media productions Mr. Robert Friedmann Professor and Distinguished Chair of Public Safety Partnerships, Department of Criminal Justice, College of Health and Human Science, Georgia State University, U.S.A.	09.30 - 11.00
Coffee Break	11.00 - 11.30
Understanding verbal and non-verbal messages of terrorist groups' web and media productions (Continued)	11.30 – 13.00
Lunch	13.00 - 14.30
Roundtable discussion with lecturer, tutor and students to debate about the morning topics	14.30 - 17.00
Closing Dinner	19.00

Wednesday September 22nd

What can crime prevention tell us about preventing terrorism? Mr. Alex Hirschfield Director of Applied Criminology Centre, University of Huddersfield, U.K.	09.30 - 11.00
Coffee Break	11.00 - 11.30
What can crime prevention tell us about preventing terrorism? (Continued)	11.30 – 13.00
Lunch	13.00 - 14.30
Roundtable discussion with lecturer, tutor and students to debate about the morning topics	14.30 - 17.00